EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT: THE START OF SUCCESS

It's the little things that can really make the difference between a good working environment and a great one.

Companies actively strive to engage with their employees and find ways to make them happy. However sometimes, a simple gesture can leave a much more lasting impression.

Statistics show that 25% of employees go out of the office and spend at least 15 minutes to buy refreshments. And, 80% of employees say that a vending machine would lessen the need to leave the office for a break. By providing quality snacks and refreshments at work, it encourages employees to stay on site, thus, giving them more time to enjoy the break they deserve.

Make the Right Choice.

Smart companies know that vending machines can work wonders in the workplace. Add a vending machine in your pantries, social lounges, rest areas and turn them into a more inviting place to interact, share ideas and build relationships.
